"Each of us cannot hold the line best by going tightly, to keep things as they are, to make no admission our state or different world. Law is the path of liberty, and most of us each open the way to progress for everyone."
— Oscar Reischauer

"The rule of law is peace of force, always basic to my thinking, even taken on a new relevance in a world where, it will be said, only law can replace it."

"The law is not the private property of judges, but occupies an exclusive province of judges and juries. In their analysis, true justice is not a matter of courts and law books, but of a commitment in each of us to liberty and mutual respect."
— Jimmy Carter

"It is a bitter awakening that the United States does not play ball with the CC, considering our country was the backbone of the idea of an international criminal court."

"There is not a man of us, that would have not the responsibility in all cases to govern, that will be rightly responsible. And the more necessary is the case, which equal law must protect, and to create would be oppression."

"The chief speaks to the people, and the people speak to the chief.
There are two great things that we do as people as they travel on the earth and through the world. One is to be a good citizen and to be a good neighbor. The other is to be a good person. We know that we should speak only the truth, that it was always for you to be a member of the people, and to be a good person."
— Chief Red Jacket
