

Be a Hero for a Better World

Pierce Brosnan (1953-)

Pierce Brosnan isn't just a movie and TV superstar, best known for his role as James Bond; he is also a passionate social activist. He is a UNICEF Ambassador and is actively involved with many other organizations as well, addressing environmental, women's healthcare and children's issues.

Pierce Brosnan is also a painter, and the proceeds from the sale of his works are given to the many charities he supports. When he and his wife Keely Shaye were married, they donated the proceeds they received from media coverage to fund a Tibetan school for children. Pierce and his wife volunteer their time for a number of environmental causes, such as marine mammal and wetland protection, and anti-nuclear, clean air and clean water campaigns. They have received many honors for their humanitarian work, including awards from the American Oceans Campaign, the Natural Resources Defense Council, and an Environmental Leadership Award from Green Cross International President, Mikhail Gorbachev.

"Many people think that hunger is unavoidable in any society, even a society that is blessed with great abundance. That is not true. The European community does not have widespread hunger. America, which leads the world in so many ways, can end childhood hunger within its borders."

Pierce Brosnan was born on May 16, 1953 in Drogheda, County Louth, Ireland
